FOOTBALL & NETBALL NOTES

A new era at the Koo Wee Rup Football Netball Club
Embracing the Past, Shaping our Future

Round 10 saw us return to our home courts to welcome Inverloch-Kongwak for another fantastic day of netball. Across the club, we had 4 wins, 1 draw, and 3 losses, with plenty of competitive matches and great performances on display.

It was wonderful to see our teams return from the bye round refreshed and ready to go, with strong teamwork, determination, and club spirit evident across all grades. Whether the results felt our way or not, every team showed plenty of fight and continued to build on the progress made throughout the season.

A Grade: KWR 50 def IK 40BOC: Chelsea Gibson

With most players back in the A Grade side, the girls were keen to show what they could do as a team. The game was played at a fast pace, with plenty of energy and intensity from both sides throughout the contest.

Koo Wee Rup applied strong defensive pressure across the court, creating numerous turnovers and giving the team opportunities to attack. The attacking end worked the ball well into the circle, providing our goalers with plenty of chances to score.

A great team effort all round, and the girls should be proud of the commitment and determination they showed throughout the game.

B Grade: KWR 48 def by IK 53BOC: Alomao Siala

A strong and intense game from the B Grade girls, who competed hard for all four quarters. The first half proved challenging as Inverloch-Kongwak capitalised on their opportunities and built a lead that was difficult to reel in.

The girls responded brilliantly after half time, outscoring their opponents in the second half thanks to some incredible accuracy in the goal circle from Alomao and a determined team effort across the court.

Another close contest for our B Grade side, highlighting the potential this team has as they continue to develop and build momentum throughout the season.

C Grade: KWR 43 def by IK 49BOC: Sara Sheriff

C Grade faced a tough challenge against 3rd-placed Inverloch and put in a fantastic effort throughout the game. Both the attacking and defensive ends worked tirelessly from start to finish, showing great determination, teamwork, and commitment.

Despite going down by just six goals, the girls never stopped competing, with the close final margin reflecting the strong performance they produced across the court. Plenty of positives to take away from a hard-fought contest.

D Grade: KWR 38 def IK 23BOC: Daley Eager

An up-and-down start to the match saw D Grade take a little time to settle after the bye. Once they found their rhythm, the girls took control, with strong defensive pressure right across the court helping to create opportunities and build momentum.

It was a fantastic team effort, with every player contributing throughout the game. The girls worked well together and were rewarded with a well-deserved win.

A special congratulations to Mackenzie Coutts on reaching her 100-game milestone and Teagan Stokkel on celebrating her 50th game. The team loved getting around both girls to celebrate these fantastic achievements.

Under 17s: KWR 23 drew IK 23BOC: Lexi Monckton

A strong Inverloch side came out firing today, while Kooweerup was a little slow to find its rhythm early. The girls lifted their intensity in the second half, applying great pressure and fighting their way back to take a small lead. It was a fantastic contest between two determined teams, with neither side giving an inch. The match finished in a well-earned draw, and we're happy to share the points after such a competitive game. After Round 10, we sit in 7th place and look forward to continuing to build momentum in the weeks ahead.

Under 15s: KWR 14 def by IK 44BOC: Hannah Addis

Today's game was a fast-paced contest, with Inverloch-Kongwak setting the tempo from the outset. After a quiet first quarter, the girls responded well, listening to their coach's feedback and working hard to implement it for the remainder of the game.

Despite some great defensive efforts and plenty of determination from Koo Wee Rup, IK proved too strong and accurate on the day. There were still plenty of positives to take away as the girls continued to work hard and compete right until the final whistle.

Under 13s: KWR 30 def IK 16BOC: Aabish Anees

Another strong performance from our Under 13 girls. Their set plays are becoming increasingly polished, and the improvement in their teamwork and execution is fantastic to see.

The fight and determination they show every week is exciting to watch, with some beautiful passages of play and strong, confident drives to the ball throughout the game. This group continues to impress with their effort, skill, and willingness to work for one another, making them one of the most exciting teams to watch.

Under 11s: KWR 27 def IK 7BOC: Billie Kelly

Another amazing game from the girls! There was plenty of fight for the ball, countless clean intercepts, beautiful goal assists, and some fantastic shooting.

The team continues to play with resilience, determination, and outstanding sportsmanship every week. Their growth and teamwork are a joy to watch, making them such an exciting team to follow. Well done girls!

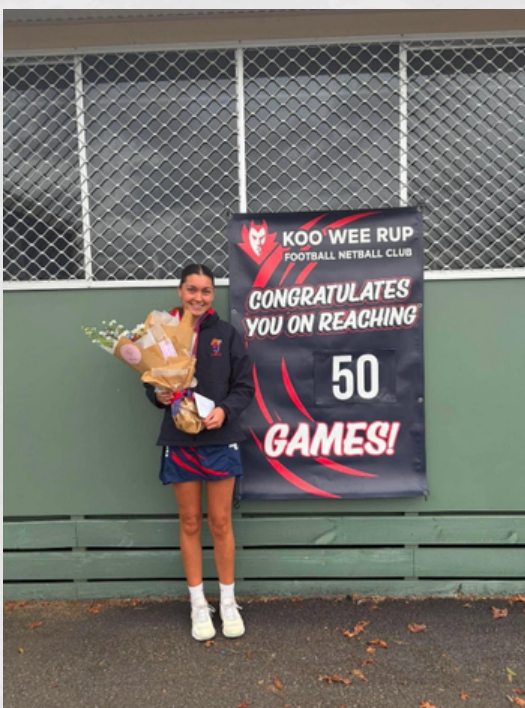

FOOTBALL & NETBALL NOTES

This week we head out to Garfield, ready to take on some strong competition and another exciting round of netball across all grades.

We also have plenty to celebrate, with three milestone games being recognised across the club. Congratulations to our Under 13s Chloe Backman and Charlee Butler, along with D Grade's Jenna Backman, who will all celebrate their 50th club games this weekend.

What a fantastic achievement and a testament to your dedication, commitment, and love of the game. We can't wait to get around the three of you and celebrate these special milestones!

Good luck to all players, coaches, and umpires for the weekend!

We welcomed Kilcunda Bass for what was going to be a hard fought out day, whether on the netball court or on the football field. The Giants were pumped for this week's round; Ladies Day, Veteran's Night Match, Auskickers playing at half time of the Seniors, and the Annual Gus James Memorial Game – Beyond Blue.

Our hunger and desire for the ball made the difference, getting the win on the board. This is what footy is about.....Gooooo Giants! Remember to look after your team mates on and off the field; Mental Health comes in all shapes and forms, and we need to be there for one another.

Neither side gave an inch, and the physical and emotional toll was felt by every player on the field and every spectator off the field. The battle went right down to the final minute, showcasing the commitment, courage, and determination of both teams.

VETERANS:

Korumburra Bena 4 5 29 v's Kilcunda Bass 1 5 11

BEST PLAYERS:GOAL KICKERS:

Well, what a way to finish Round 10 with our Veterans fighting it out for the Beyond Blue Middle Pub Cup: helping to raise awareness for mental health and reminding everyone that it is ok to speak up. The crowd was full of Blue Beanies, who all had high expectations from both Veterans teams to put on a performance and they weren't disappointed. It was another close game, that required extra skill, commitment and dedication to be out there amongst the rain. Amazing effort to both teams, it was great to see the Giants come away with the win and the four points on the scoreboard.

NETBALL RESULTS:

11's Korumburra Bena 15 v's Kilcunda Bass 10

AWARDS: Our award winners are Paige Wyatt for her all-round effort throughout the game and Zara Wyatt with amazing shots and teamwork with everyone in the ring! Under 11s had a good win this week! We need to work on focusing on looking down the court to see who's free and slowing the ball down then clearing out when we can't get the ball.

13's Korumburra Bena 15 v's Kilcunda Bass 47

AWARDS: Paige Anderson & Stella Clasby
Another tough one this week but the girls played really well together and slowed Kilby Bass down. Let's all get to training, and put our game plan into action.

15's Korumburra Bena 19 v's Kilcunda Bass 34

AWARDS: Shylah Coote & Daisy Marotta. Daisy worked tirelessly in both GD and C, providing great direction on court getting some great intercepts. Shylah provided a steady option in the attack end, shooting beautifully. Super proud of the girls today! We got off to a good start and carried that momentum through until the third quarter when the game slipped away from us a little bit. We moved well in the circle, adapted seamlessly when changes were made, and our defensive efforts and back up were fantastic! Well done to all the girls!!!

17's Korumburra Bena 50 v's Kilcunda Bass 35

AWARDS: Chloe Ogilvy & Ruby Anderson
Great day for our seventeens today, a strong team performance all over the court. Great tips and intercepts in the defence end, hard drives and great connection through the mid court and our goalers rewarding all the hard work by finishing it off down their end. Well done girls on a great win!!

D Grade Korumburra Bena 42 v's Kilcunda Bass 20

AWARDS: Kelly Ogilvy & Maia Enbom
How good is putting in at training to see it come together on court on a Saturday. We played some great clear space netball with backup options, midcourt drives and good positioning. Let's keep it up this week!!!

C Grade Korumburra Bena 23 v's Kilcunda Bass 28

AWARD: Heidi Nicholas & Maia Whiteside
The C graders fought hard this week, with a strong start, getting behind each other and chasing loose balls up. A couple of great passages of play that the girls should be very proud of but unfortunately, we let the game get away from us again. We need to take it back to basics and make it count next time.

B Grade Korumburra Bena 33 v's Kilcunda Bass 46

AWARDS: Chloe Ogilvy and Ella Cuman
We are improving every week and it's great to see the girls not dropping their heads and turning up to play every Saturday.

A Grade Korumburra Bena 35 v's Kilcunda Bass 77

AWARD: Chelsea Fox
Tough day against a very strong and tall Kilcunda Bass team.

FOOTBALL & NETBALL NOTES

Nar Nar Goon Netball Club enjoyed a fantastic day on the courts against Dusties on the weekend, with strong performances across the grades resulting in 7 out of 8 wins for the day.

Our junior teams got the day off to the perfect start, recording some impressive wins and setting the tone for the day. Their skill, teamwork and determination were on full display, continuing the great progress being made throughout the season. While the result didn't go the way of our 17 & Under team, their effort and commitment never wavered, competing hard until the final whistle and they all should be proud of their efforts.

The success continued throughout the afternoon, with our senior teams producing some excellent netball and demonstrating the depth of talent across the club. A Grade capped off a terrific day, bouncing back with a solid and determined win after a few challenging weeks of narrow losses. The team showed great resilience and belief, sticking to their game plan and earning a well-deserved result to finish the day on a high note.

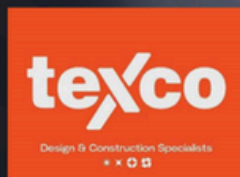

Congratulations to all players and coaches for a successful weekend for the club. It's fantastic to see the hard work at training translating into strong performances and positive results on game day.

FOOTBALL & NETBALL NOTESRound 11 V Warragul

We hit the road again this week but this time we're headed to Warragul to take on the Dusties for the second time this season. Last time we met the Dusties we finished up with 7/8 wins and our under 15s had a draw that went down to the final siren. Both under 15 teams are sitting on equal points on the ladder and I'm certain both teams want to get the win this time around, so be sure to courtside for this one!!

We made the trek down to Dalyston last weekend and came home with a clean sweep!! The weather may have been terrible but that never stopped us and our juniors proved that with their very impressive margins (with that wind too.. amazing!!) Our seniors all managed to get some great wins too, A & B grade had the closest games of the day and both won by 5 goals in the end!
